

We are excited to introduce Dr. Christine Mallowney as the new Medical Director of the Oregon POLST Program!

Christine Mallowney, MD is an assistant professor of medicine at OHSU, where she has served as a primary care physician in General Internal Medicine since 2010.

Christine's credentials include:

- BA - Stanford University
- MD - Case Western Reserve University (graduating Alpha Omega Alpha)
- Internal Medicine Residency at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center - Harvard Medical School

Christine has served on the Oregon POLST Coalition for the past two years. She was elected as the Coalition's Chair earlier this year and in July became the Medical Director of the Oregon POLST Program with support from The Bill and Helen Jo Whitsell Ethics Endowment.

As medical director, Christine provides data analysis, peer education and technical support to clinicians across the state by integrating her hands-on expertise in clinical care with her insightful utilization of primary care quality improvement methods.

In a new educational video for health care professionals, Dr. Mallowney explains some of the recent improvements made to the Oregon POLST form.
